AGILE MICROWAVE TECHNOLOGY INC. ADDS NEW SALES REPRESENTATIVES IN THE NEW ENGLAND TERRITORY

High-tech Sales Inc. to represent Agile Microwave Technology Inc. in Six States.

HICKSVILLE, LONG ISLAND, N.Y. — Agile Microwave Technology Inc. (Agile-MWT) a product innovator in RF and Microwave component and sub-system market is pleased to announce the appointment of High-tech Sales (H-t-S) as its sales representative organization for the Massachusetts, Connecticut, New Hampshire, Maine, Rhode Island and Vermont territories. H-t-S is a sales representative organization with RF and Microwave product experts that have successfully serviced the electronics industry since 1974. H-t-S covers the New England military and commercial electronic markets with extensive technical experience, enabling effective communications with the engineering staff of its customers. H-t-S specializes in RF, Microwave, Interconnect, Test and Telemetry products. Teamed with Agile- $\mu$ WT factory sales engineers and marketing & sales force, H-t-S representatives will provide sales and technical support to the territory's RF and Microwave product designers and manufacturers.

“I am very excited about this new partnership. Jay Brewster’s team at H-t-S is top notch in the RF & Microwave market space,” says Jay Chudasama, President of Agile Microwave Technology Inc.
